Congratulations. I had several Johnny-Rudes going back to 1955. The "Big Twin 35" is the iconic version from the fifties. A great outboard and worth restoring IMHO, but knowing the work involved, better you than me.

This 35hp 1957 Evinrude is a great running outboard. This motor has a fuel pump so it will run on modern gas tanks at 25:1 fuel oil mixture. These are very desirable outboards as they are from the iconic 50's era. This 35 hp Evinrude has been used primarily in freshwater and runs great.
